MUST HAVE SHOPPING OPENING SPRING 2011 NEEDS A CENTRE MANAGER

Trinity Walk is set to transform shopping in Wakefield

The 500,000 sq ft scheme comprises more than 40 stores and is already 70% let, with an impressive line up of tenants including Sainsbury's and Debenhams.

Managing agent King Sturge is now looking to appoint a centre manager.

The centre manager will recruit and manage the on-site team and be the key central contact point for tenants, managing agents, landlord and other stakeholders right from the beginning.

Responsible for centre operations, performance, footfall, dwell time and spend as well as the viability and vitality of this important new shopping centre, the manager will also act as an ambassador for the centre across the region and beyond.

The successful candidate will have a proven track record in retail and previous experience of working within a shopping centre or retail environment.

If you are interested in this exciting new opportunity, please send your CV, covering letter and indication of salary expectations to
